- 5.4 We accept (and you and the Company agree that we have) no liability whatsoever for any loss, damage or liability incurred directly or indirectly by the Company and/or you or any other person as a result of the insolvency, liquidation, winding up, failure, collapse, default or similar event of a bank which operates any of our general clients' accounts and/or the Company's accounts and which results directly or indirectly in such bank being unable, in whole or in part, to repay any credit balance in any of our general clients' accounts and/or the Company's accounts (the "Bank's Failure to Repay"). The Company and you hereby agree to hold us and each Indemnified Person harmless in respect of the Bank's Failure to Repay.

We may be legally obliged to ask you for due diligence documentation prior to returning any funds to you, especially if you request the funds be returned to a different account from which they were sent.
- b. If you do not respond to our attempts to contact you, we shall be entitled to charge an administrative fee of £100 per month for each month in which we hold a balance for you. This fee will be deducted from your balance. If at any time the total sum of our fees exceeds your balance, we shall not be obliged to return any funds to you. Any increase in the administrative fee will be notified to you at the correspondence address that we hold for you.
- c. If you do not respond to our attempts to contact you within 6 months of our initial contact, we shall be entitled to retain the balance of any funds that we hold on your behalf and we shall have no further liability to you in respect of such funds.

- 6.2 We do not provide tax, investment, legal or financial advice and we do not accept any responsibility or liability for any loss or damage suffered by you or the Company as a result of you and/or the Company engaging us to provide Services to you, on your behalf, to the Company or to any other structure at your request.
- 6.3 You warrant and represent that you currently, and in the future will continue to, comply with all legal and taxation obligations applicable to you under the laws of the jurisdiction in which you are resident/domiciled or any other relevant jurisdiction including, without limitation, all reporting and filing obligations to any tax or governmental authority in relation to your interest in, ownership of or relationship with, the Company or any structure we administer or provide Services to at your request.

7. INFORMATION & AUTOMATIC EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

- 7.1 You represent and warrant that the information contained in the Application Form and any other information that you have provided to us is accurate and complete and is not misleading in any way. You hereby confirm that you are acting solely as principal and not as agent for any other person.
- 7.2 You must inform us immediately in writing of any changes to the ultimate beneficial ownership of the Company and of any changes or dealings in relation thereto (whether by transfer or grant of option or agreement to do so or otherwise).
- 7.3 You must also inform us immediately in writing of any changes to your details as given either in the course of application for business or at any subsequent date. This obligation relates to information including, but not limited to, any change of name, address or contact details, and if you are a company, a partnership, a trust or an unincorporated association, any material change in your constitution or equivalent or any change in the composition, identity or addresses of Persons Associated to your entity such as your officers, beneficial owners, controllers and beneficiaries as - applicable, and to provide us with documentary evidence of the change on request.

- 7.4 The obligations in clauses 7.2 and 7.3 are particularly important in view of the requirement under automatic exchange of information agreements which require us to be aware of any change of circumstance which might impact on the information to be reported in relation to you and the Company.
- 7.5 Without prejudice to clauses 7.2 and 7.3 above, you and the Company agree to provide us, as soon as reasonably practicable following a request, all information and/or documentation which we may reasonably require from time to time for the purposes of ensuring that we comply with Isle of Man Law or applicable law in any other relevant jurisdiction which requires us to establish, maintain or operate measures to prevent money laundering or the financing of terrorism.
- 7.6 You acknowledge and agree that until you have complied in full with any request to provide Customer Due Diligence Information, we shall be under no duty to perform or continue to perform any of the Services. Furthermore, we shall be under no obligation to carry out any act where to do so would in our opinion amount to a breach or possible breach of any applicable law including without limitation anti-money laundering legislation.
- 7.7 The extent and/or nature of the Customer Due Diligence Information we request shall take account of any relevant supervisory or regulatory rules or guidance which may apply from time to time.
- 7.8 You undertake to inform us of any matter that may affect our willingness and/or our ability to provide, or continue to provide the Services or any matter that is material to the administration or affairs of the Company.
- 7.9 Upon the coming into force under Isle of Man Law of automatic tax or other information exchange agreements between the Isle of Man and other countries from time to time (whether based on bilateral agreements or multilateral global initiatives such as, without limitation, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development's Common Reporting Standard), we may be required to collect Reportable Information and to disclose Reportable Information to foreign tax or governmental authorities either directly or via the Isle of Man Government. Our obligation to obtain, disclose and exchange Reportable Information could extend beyond the ultimate beneficial owner of the Company to other relevant Persons Associated such as the directors, minority shareholders and persons who receive payments from the Company. - 8.1 No person other than a Party to this Agreement, their successors and permitted transferees or assigns, shall have any right to enforce any of its terms under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 2001 unless we expressly agree in writing to such third party rights.
- 8.2 This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to the provision of Services to the Company.
- 8.3 We reserve the right to vary, amend or add to any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement and will give at least 30 days' notice to you and the Company of any variation unless we agree a shorter notice period with you and the Company.

9. ANTI-BRIBERY POLICY

- 9.1 The Isle of Man Bribery Act makes it an offence to give or receive a bribe. It is also an offence under the Act to bribe a foreign public official. The Act applies to all Isle of Man companies as well as to any subsidiary, joint venture, intermediary, introducer, agent etc of an Isle of Man company regardless of where they are in the world.

- 9.2 The implications of the Act for the Company, you and any person associated with you are that bribes must not be offered (even if they are not accepted), paid (be that in monetary terms or in any other form) or accepted (be that in monetary terms or in any other form). This applies regardless of the location in which the bribe is offered or received. To contravene the requirements of the Act is a criminal offence, the penalties for which include imprisonment and the payment of fines.
- 9.3 It should be noted that the Act extends to the prohibition of facilitation payments. These are often small payments made to expedite a process. Such a payment could be an offence under the Act.
- 9.4 If you or the Company becomes aware of any incidence of bribery directly or indirectly involving the Company, you must bring it to the attention of the Money Laundering Reporting Officer. If you require any further information in relation to our anti-bribery and corruption policy, please contact the Money Laundering Reporting Officer in writing at AFL's Registered Office Address.

10. TERMINATION

- 10.1 This Agreement may be terminated by you, the Company or us on giving 30 days' written notice (or such shorter notice as the other Parties may agree to accept) to the other Parties whereupon, but subject to clause 10.2, this Agreement and the obligations of the Parties (save in respect of antecedent breaches) cease and terminate.
- 10.2 Subject to clause 10.7, where this Agreement has been terminated by you or the Company under clause 10.1 above, the obligations of the Parties shall not terminate unless and until the Company has been duly transferred to a suitable alternative service provider.
- 10.3 We shall be entitled (but not obliged) to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect by notice in writing in the event that:-
- 10.3.1 you or the Company commits any material breach of your obligations under this Agreement or under any other agreement between the Parties and has failed to remedy such breach within a reasonable time, if such breach is capable of being remedied; or
 - 10.3.2 you or the Company goes into liquidation (except for the purpose of a bona fide solvent amalgamation or re-organisation) or is declared bankrupt or a bankruptcy petition is presented against you or the Company or a receiver or administrator is appointed in respect of you or the Company, or anything analogous to any of the foregoing occurs in relation to you or the Company under the law of any jurisdiction; or
 - 10.3.3 any legal proceedings are commenced against the Company (including any injunction or civil, criminal, tax, securities or other investigation or proceedings in any jurisdiction);
 - 10.3.4 you or the Company fail to provide within a reasonable period of time all Customer Due Diligence Information reasonably requested by us; or
 - 10.3.5 any invoices raised by us remain unpaid 60 days after issue.
- 10.4 Termination shall be without prejudice to any rights or liabilities of any Party either arising prior to, or after, termination.
- 10.5 In the event of termination, any applicable minimum annual charge levied by us will not be pro-rated or refunded.
- 10.6 Subject to clause 4.6, upon the effective termination of this Agreement, we shall deliver to the Company or to whom it may direct all books of account, correspondence and records relating to the affairs of the Company which are the property of the Company and which are in our possession. We shall be entitled to take copies if we so wish at the Company's cost.

- 10.7 If you fail to appoint a suitable alternative service provider in respect of the Services we provide to the Company within 45 days after notice of termination is served under clause 10.1 or within 7 days if notice of termination is served under clauses 10.3.1-10.3.5, we shall be entitled immediately thereafter to resign from all positions and to cease providing the Services notwithstanding that such resignation or cessation of Services may leave the Company without the requisite officers, registered agent, nominated officer, registered office and liable to be struck off. In the alternative in such circumstances, and subject to giving you 14 days' notice in writing, we shall be entitled to commence the dissolution or winding up of the Company.
- 10.8 In the event of termination of this Agreement, we shall be entitled to transfer any shares held by us or any Group Company (e.g. a nominee shareholder) into the name of the person listed as beneficial owner in the relevant declaration of trust unless you have given lawful instructions to the contrary and complied with any applicable anti-money laundering or regulatory requirements within 14 days of termination in respect of a clause 10.1 termination or 7 days of termination in respect of a termination under clauses 10.3.1 – 10.3.5.
- 10.9 In the event that, following termination of this Agreement, a suitable alternative service provider is not nominated by you and/or we are obliged by law to continue providing the Services, such provision of Services shall continue to be governed by the terms of this Agreement and each of you and the Company shall remain liable for the payment of Fees in accordance with this Agreement.
- 10.10 To the extent that Isle of Man Law requires a longer period of notice of resignation from any position than the period set out in this Agreement, that longer period shall apply to this Agreement.
- 10.11 For the purposes of this clause 10, a "suitable alternative service provider" shall mean a person licensed by the FSA or other relevant regulator to provide the relevant Services or any other person we deem suitable (such as the Client).
- 10.12 For the avoidance of any doubt, we shall have no liability or duty to make any filing on behalf of the Company where you or the Company are in breach of this Agreement (including, without limitation, where there are invoices outstanding) notwithstanding that such non filing could cause the Company to be struck off the Register of Companies and for its assets to vest bona vacantia.

11. INDEMNITY & LIMITATION ON LIABILITY

- 11.1 We shall not be liable (whether under the express or implied terms of this Agreement, or in negligence, or at common law or in any other way) for any loss, damage or expense howsoever suffered by you, the Company or any other person in connection with, or in relation to, the Services, or any act or omission of any Indemnified Person unless such loss, damage or expense arises from the gross negligence, wilful default or fraud of an Indemnified Person.

APPENDIX 1 – CLIENT MONEY

We are required to communicate to clients certain information regarding client money. If we operate a client bank account or otherwise hold client money on behalf of a client, then the client is deemed to have read and understood the following information.

A. What is a client bank account?

A client bank account is a bank account held by, and in the name of AFL in which we will hold your money on trust for you while it remains in the account. All money held in a client bank account is referred to as client money. A client bank account is specially created by us for the purpose of holding your money and the money of other clients. The client bank account is segregated from any other bank account in our name holding money which is our money. All client bank accounts are held at recognised banks. A recognised bank is a bank which holds a licence issued by the Isle of Man Financial Services Authority for deposit taking or is authorised under the law of another acceptable country or territory to carry on activities corresponding to deposit taking; see rule 3.2 of the Financial Services Rule Book 2013 (as the same may be amended or replaced from time to time) for the full definition of “recognised bank”. In relation to fiduciary services, please note that an account held in the name of the Company, or as trustee of a trust, is not a client bank account. It is mandated to the Company or the trustee of the trust and the Company or the trustee is the legal owner of the money held in that account. As the money in these accounts is not classed as client money, the details relating to pooling of money in client bank accounts (as set out below) do not apply.

B. What different types of client bank accounts are there and what are the differences between them?

There are different types of client bank account. The main difference between the types of client bank account is what happens in the event of a bank failure (i.e. where, as a result of the failure, the client money held by us is insufficient to pay the claims of all clients). It is therefore important that you understand the risks associated with the different types of client bank account and ensure that we are made aware of your preferences (if any) in this regard.

C. General client bank account

A general client bank account usually holds money of several clients. The money may be held at one bank or the money may be in multiple bank accounts spread across several banks. In the event of a default of a bank where we have a general client bank account, client monies held in all of our general client bank accounts will be pooled (even if money is held in more than one general client bank account and the accounts are held in more than one bank). In this situation, each client who has money in the general client bank account will lose an equal proportion of their money, whether or not the bank your client money is held with is in default. This loss will be adjusted by any compensation arrangements in place.

D. Specified client bank account

A specified client bank account is a client bank account where –

- (i) you have chosen the bank where your money will be held; or
- (ii) we have chosen the bank for you and have let you know the name of the bank and the fact that the account is a specified client bank account within five business days of the account being opened.

A specified client bank account is intended to hold client money in a bank selected by you and by other clients. The account will be segregated from any other account holding client money. It will have the word “specified” (or an appropriate abbreviation) in its title. If your money is held in a specified client bank account and the bank at which that money is held goes into default, the monies will not be pooled with client money held in any other client bank account and you could potentially lose the total amount held at the bank (subject to any compensation arrangements in place). Under the liquidation, or any compensation scheme in place at that time, you may be entitled to claim against the money in the specified client bank account. However, you would not be entitled to claim against any other client bank account (at that or any other bank) in respect of that money. On the other hand, if your money is held in a specified client bank account at a bank other than the bank which is in default, your money will not be pooled with client money held in any other client bank account (at that or any other bank) and so in the event of default of another bank you would not lose any of your money. If you want your money to be held in a specified client bank account, you must ask us to open one for you. You may select the bank at which it is opened or, if you would prefer, we may select a bank for you.
